

Reactions would like to issue our congratulations to Conning on being named Insurance Asset Management Firm of the Year at the 2020 Reactions London Market Awards.

The win was announced during a virtual awards ceremony held on 19th August, hosted by Reactions London Editor Mark Richardson.

The winners were determined with the help of an expert judging panel consisting of Dominic Christian, Global Chairman, Aon Reinsurance Solutions; James Nash, CEO International, Guy Carpenter; Kate Markham, CEO, Hiscox London Market; Andrew Horton, CEO, Beazley; David Flandro, MD, Analytics, Hyperion X; and Dominick Hoare, Group CUO and Active Underwriter, Munich Re Syndicate.

The panel said that Conning was a deserved winner in the category because of the statistics provided quantifying customer satisfaction and customer tenure in 2019.

Commenting on the award win, Reactions London Editor Mark Richardson said: “Conning serviced its clients well last year. Its Insurance Research Unit helped it to stand out from the rest, with its top-flight team of analysts ensuring it continues to put forward a strong offering.”
